

Through the Eyes of a Child

---

February 28      Read: John 19:28-30      Karen Meinders

From comments of: Jordan Apperloo, Kegan Atsma, Mathys deBlieck, Kendra DeWolde, Elijah Dykshoorn, Gregory Kendall, Sam Lee, and Violet VanderKooi

Imagine... what it was like to be at the cross, at the tomb. What would you hear, see, experience? How would you feel? Now... imagine you are a child. Relive the Easter story through the eyes of some little ones.

“Jesus carried the cross, which looked like an ‘x’, on his back. It was made of heavy wood. The soldiers used a hammer and sharp nails to put Jesus on the cross. Jesus bled. His hands and feet couldn’t move. On the top of the cross a sign said ‘King of the Jews’. The soldiers also put a pokey crown on him.”

“Jesus felt sad; it hurt his body. He knew he had to die for my sins. When he died, God freed him, and his spirit went into heaven.”

“A friend took his body down from the cross, and wrapped him in white linen cloths. He put him in a tomb, which was a very big cave. It had a big stone rolled by the hole, and soldiers guarded the cave. After three days...”

“After Jesus was dead for three days, there was a big earthquake and the people fell down. There was a bright light, and an angel removed the rock. Later, Mary came to visit the tomb, but Jesus was not there. The angel told Mary that Jesus wasn’t dead; he was alive! Other angels were singing praises to God.”

Prayer: I love you my God! I love you more than anything in the world! Praise to you, God! AMEN.

---