

If You Are the Son of God

March 25

Read: Mark 15:21-32

I stand facing a man I do not know personally, but only know of what has been told to me, some tell me he is the Son of God, some tell me he is a heretic. All I know is that he has been sentenced to death. All the people around me are laughing, scoffing at this man. I join them in taunting him. “If you are the Son of God, surely you will not die and make us believe!”

I think to myself “Why doesn’t he just prove it to us? Why won’t he just show us all he is who he says he is? I stand here waiting for something to happen. I want to believe in him because of all the miracles I’ve heard of him performing.

I guess he is a fraud, he is just some guy that has fooled so many and deserves this.

“.. He was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon him, and by his wounds we are healed” (Isaiah 53 v5).

Prayer: Lord I thank you for your Son, and his obedience in doing your will, dying on the cross and cleansing me of my sins. I thank you for coming into my heart and helping me become a better man than I was before, and I pray that you will continue this work inside of me while the change in my heart resonates for others to see, drawing them closer to you too. AMEN.
