Hungry for Justice

This year's theme is entitled "Hungry for Justice." This conference gathers people for teaching and worship around the topics of biblical justice. The conference seeks to encourage and foster engagement with local, regional and international justice issues.

Two keynote addresses will be given by Roy Berkenbosch of the King's University College, Edmonton:

1. Hope's Beautiful Daughters (Friday night)
2. Hungry for Justice (Saturday morning)

At New Life's weekend worship services (Saturday, 6PM; Sunday 10AM) Dr. Kurt VerBeek of AJS, Honduras will preach on II Samuel 12, entitled Loving Fearlessly

CONFERENCE STATEMENT

Let us not be content with injustice,
but let us come before God.

Let us work with our hearts, minds and hands,
and let us seek what is good, right and true.

Let us live out true religion, caring for the orphan and the widow.

Conference Speakers

Conference Keynote Speaker

Roy Berkenbosch is the Director of the Micah Centre at the King's University College and the Pastoral Advisor for CRWRC.

Weekend Worship Speaker

Kurt Ver Beek is co-founder of AJS, a 60-person, Christian human rights agency in Honduras and professor at Calvin College.

Please allow for time between scheduled sessions for viewing the many exhibits from a wide array of agencies that we will be hosting at the conference.
