ACME Update

We have arrived!

Dear friends and family,

Thank you so much for your prayers! We are in Jumla and settling in. All of our bus and plane rides worked out great—the babies did well in the van and slept on our flight into Jumla (which we were able to get on the day we wanted—praise God!)

We are enjoying our visiting friends (see picture on page 2) they are incredibly helpful and the fellowship is a blessing.

The farm is looking great, and we've enjoyed seeing again our local friends here in Jumla. We're weeding, planting, and building beehives these days—at least that's what everyone else is doing—I'm just feeding babies :-). We are so blessed to have friends to help, which is allowing me to focus on the babies. The girls are transitioning very well—so far they are healthy, smiley, and friendly with all the friends and visitors that give them attention.

Thank you so much for remembering us in your prayers.

In Him,

ACME (Andrew, Colleen, Maya, Elise)
